More Remnants Than Usual for Friday's Sale

The White Goods Sale doesn't pause at all because it's remnant day, but on the contrary you'll find exceptional values in some lines of this sale, just because it's the day for odds and ends. In the linens, fo instance, there's broken lots and pieces that we'll reduce for Friday.

What a busy week it's been all around. We've talked principally about our White Goods, you know, and let the other people just keep quiet for a few days except the notious and fancy goods man, and you saw from the store news that his articles were so good and so cheap that we had to let him say something. But everybody's been busy, and so Friday morning will see good things from he China and Housefurnishing Departments in the basement to the Curtains and Draperies on the third floor, going at prices that will—

we were going to say surprise you, but it won't—for you're never surprised at our news or our goods. You accept both as a matter of course, because our name is back of them.

But it will cause you to believe more firmly than ever that our Friday goods are just as fine as our Wednesday, our Saturday, or any other day goods and that the prices are the lowest in Richmond for a first-class

BANK CHANGES ITS OWNERSHIP

New Men in Control of the Metropolitan.

COL. TENNANT IS PRESIDENT

He Succeeds Mr. Thomas N. Carter-Mr. Williams to Remain as Cashier, The Stockholders and Directors,

The Metropolitan Bank has passed practically into new hands.

In other words, "new blood" has been introduced, a new charter secured, with the name changed to the Metropolitan Bank of Virginia, and the capital stock increased to $300,000, all of which has been paid in. Colonel W. Brydon Tennant succeeds

Mr. Themas Nelson Carter as president. Mr. Carter some time ago signified his intention to give up the presidency as soon as his successor should be chosen. While the Metropolitan Bank has suffered to some extent by financial failures of certain firms or individuais, it was never so strong as it is to-day, and those who are backing it are among the most substantial citizens of the city. THE STOCKHOLDERS.

Some of the stockholders are Messis.

The officers of the new bank, as named in the charter will be Mr. W. Brydon Tenrant, President; Henry L. Cabell. Vice-President, and H. A. Williams, Cashier. The Directors for the first year will be Pohr S. Bosher. Thus N. Carter.

Cashler. The Directors for the first year will be Robt. S. Bosher, Thos. N. Carter, W. Brydon Tennant, R. H. Meade, Langbourne M. Williams, Henry L. Cabell, and Beverly T. Crump.

It will be thus seen that the new bank starts out under very auspicious circumstances, managed as it is by some of the most successful business men of Richmond, and as it succeeds to an excellent business it will add strengath to the banking interests of our city, and be a new power in promoting its growth.

TAKE CONTKOL AT ONCE.

The gentlemen to whom the charter

The gentlemen to whom the charter was granted assume control of the banking property at once. To the depositors and customers of the bank the change will have no other significance than they will be dealing with an institution much stronger than ever it was before. There will be no change in the clerical force or interior management of the bank Mr. H. A. Williams will continue cashier, and will retain his present clerical help. The backing of the bank is now a strong combination of wealthy and conservative men of this city, and the future of the institution very bright.

Colonel Tennant is a young lawyer and represents large financial interests. He was a member of Governor Tylers staff. It is understood that he will devote the most of his time to the affairs of the bank.

Mr. Williams has been the cashier for several years, and Mr. H. L. Cabell, who succeeds Mr. Fred. S. Valentine as vicepresilent, has for some time been a di-rector, and last night was elected presi-dent of the Chamber of Commerce.

Old Officers Chosen.

The stockholders of the Savings Bank of Richmond held their annual meeting resterday afternoon, and re-elected the olu officers and directors as follows: R. A. Patterson, president: L. Z. ### The Sunday League.

A handsome pulpit, with pulpit chairs, table and carpet, will be presented to the Grove-Avenue Baptist Church, of this city, by the First Baptist Church, of Philadelphia, of which Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper is the pastor. By invitation of the Philadelphia church, and by request of his own, Dr. Hawthorne will go to the Quaker City on the second Sunday in February and take up a collection. Dr. Tupper is a former resident of Richmond, and is the eldest son of Dr. H., A. Tupper, Professor of Divinity in Richmond College.

He is a distant kinsman of Dr. Hawthorne and hence, probably the graceful act on the part of himself and his church. More than this, he is expected to visit Richmond in the early summer and preach at Grove-Avenue, afterwards delivering a lecture in the interests of the organ fund of the Richmond church.

The Ministerial Union will meet Monday next in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. One of the matters which will in all probability come before the body to excite some interesting discussion will be the present condition and purposes of the Sunday Observance League.
